Shamanic Mudra Healing

Mudra healing is an energetic therapy that Isaac developed many years ago, result of the extra sensory perception he was born with. "One day my hands began to move on their own without any effort which was when I started to feel the energy around us". Isaac channels the most pure and crystal energy through his hands and fingers, using Mudra position, to repair, harmonise, unblock and clean the energy system around ourselves and inside the physical body.

Saki Massage

Saki Massage is Isaac's perfect combination of the most therapeutic millenary techniques around the world. It combines the stretches of Thai Massage, the acupuncture of Shiatsu and Tuina Massage, the smoothness and deep touch of the balinese, the detoxification of the organs through reflexology, and the stimulation of the nervous system at both brain hemispheres using the Indian head massage technique.

Chi Nei Tsang

This is a millenary technique only based on the manipulation of the organs in the abdominal region. By working in there all the energy blocked since childhood, all the anger accumulated in the organs will be released giving a potential change on the person. This is a highly recommended treatment as it is very deep and healing.
